Neutrals Only Question On Which Governments Differ

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, April 26.—Announcement was made today that British Foreign Minister Balfour
and Secretary McAdoo have arrived at a complete understanding on questions affecting finance, trade, shipping, banking, exchange and kindred problems. Mr. Balfour expressed today as tremendously pleased with the sympathetic understanding and the co-operation of the American government.

The actual detailed working out of the broad principles outlined will form the major part in the next ten days of the commission.

Mr. Balfour devoted himself today to co-ordinating the suggestions made by Secretary McAdoo with the tentative plans brought over by the British commission and to arranging for the most efficient linking up of personnel in the two governments.

The foremost points of difference between the American and the allied governments relates to trade
both with the enemy and with neutral governments. There is a gap between the extreme which this government believes justified under international law and the practices of the allies. As a result the United States will pass as strict laws as possible and allow the entente to carry out other restrictions which they have found necessary.

The British commissioners today received a most cordial letter of greeting and appreciation from M.
Viviani, of the French commission,
thanking them for their cordial welcome and speaking of the solidarity of their alliance which nothing could make. Mr. Balfour lunched today at the British embassy and paid an official call on the French commission.

MINERS HEAD TEARS
DOWN FLAG; UNIONS
REPUDIATE ACTION

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Globe, Ariz., April 26.—George Smith, president of the Globe Central Labor Council and Secretary of the Miner's Union tore down the American flag from the front of the miners union hall and from behind the chair in which he conducted a council meeting last night.

The flag had been placed there by representatives of the Carpenters' Union.

Recently Smith issued a public statement denouncing President Wilson and Congress for plunging the nation into war. Since then every union except the miners has repudiated his action. The electricians and printers have withdrawn from the Central Labor body.

TO ADOPT FORMULA OF SOCIALISTS WOULD ADMIT WEAKNESS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Amsterdam, via London, April 26.—
The Berlin Vorwaerts comments sarcastically on the announcement of the semi-official Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung that the German government refuses to declare its attitude amid the conflict of opinion regarding Germany's war aims. The Vorwaerts says the government does not wish to reject directly the peace formula of the Social Democrats but nevertheless refuses to adopt it because the British and French newspapers are talking nonsense and adherence to the formula might be interpreted as a sign of weakness. The paper adds:

Whoever wishes may read between the lines that the government is prepared to conclude peace without annexation and indemnities and would even be glad to get it but does not dare to say so, owing to the threatening attitude of the Paris Maten and Journal and also of the Deutsche Tages Zeitung and the Tagliche Rundschau."

PRESIDENT RIDES HORSEBACK.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, April 26.—President Wilson has taken up horseback riding for exercise and recreation. He took a ride yesterday afternoon and planned to go out again today. The president has ridden occasionally before.

DO YOUR "BIT"

The country needs more than soldiers, more than nurses, more than physicians.

It needs your dollar or two to help save the life of some wounded boy who is fighting for his country. We cannot all go to the front but we can all help in the great work of the American Red Cross. Join the Red Cross now. The fee is $1. There will be no field service of any kind connected with your joining. Headquarters, 16 Arcade, will be opened Saturday, possibly tomorrow.

AMERICAN CREW LEAVES SHIP UNDER FIRE FROM U-BOAT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, April 26.—The destruction without warning by submarine gunfire of the American schooner Percy Birdsall of New York was reported today to the state department. Time and place were not announced.

The submarine fired ten shots,
seven of which struck the schooner
below the water line, some of them while the captain and crew of nine were taking to the boats. The survivors were rescued by a British patrol boat after being in the boats about an hour and a half.

The Birdsall was of 1127 tons gross; built in Wilmington, Del., in 1890 and was owned by Edward L.
Holmes.

SHIP CREW SAVED.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
New York, New York, April 26.—
All on board the American schooner Percy Birdsall sunk by a German submarine were saved, according to a cablegram received here from Bordeaux, under date of April 24 by the Foreign and Domestic Transportation
Company, owners of the vessels.

Most of the crew were Americans,
according to the company.

The schooner left Sabine, Texas, with a cargo of sulphur, which she discharged at Bordeaux and was on her way to New York in ballast
when sunk.

REVENUE OFFICERS
SEIZE 2,000 OUNCES
CONTRABAND DRUG

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
New York, April 26.—By the arrest of two young Russians here and the confiscation of narcotic drugs valued at $500,000 agents of the internal revenue department believe they have broken up a drug ring that operated all over the country and cut off the supply of many thousands of drug users.

The prisoners who described themselves as Mox Kirshon and Jack Malaga, are charged with smuggling the narcotics into the country and selling them on a wholesale basis at enormous profits. The 2,000 ounces seized yesterday, it was stated, cost an average of $40 an ounce, but after being diluted by nine or ten times its bulk with milk, sugar or other foreign substances the police figure that it could be sold to drug users for not less than half a million dollars.

NEWSPAPERS NEED
NO CENSORSHIP LAW; OBSERVE REQUEST

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
New York, April 26.—The press
censorship clause of the espionage
bill now before congress is condemned by the American Newspaper Publishers Association on the ground that it imperils free institutions and strikes at the fundamental rights of the people. A resolution unanimously adopted at the association's annual convention yesterday requests congress to eliminate this clause.

"A voluntary censorship, suggested by the government, is being carefully observed by the papers of the United States," says the resolution.
"and no loyal newspaper will knowingly print that which would give aid to the enemy."

NOTRE DAME BOYS ENLIST.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
South Bend, Ind., April 26.—Approximately 350 students at Notre Dame University have signed their intentions of enlisting for the war.
President Cavanaugh of the university, announced yesterday that students who enlist will be given credits for a full term's work.

FRENCH PARTY RECEIVED BY
THE PRESIDENTEntire Commission Visits
White House For First Formal CallINTERPRETER NEEDED FOR LEADERS OF THE PARTYWashington Crowds Show Warmth of Feeling For Guests

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, April 26.—The French commission began its first day in Washington with a round of official calls. The first was at the state, war and navy departments.
Former Premier Viviani, head of the mission, Marshal Joffre, Admiral Cochepat and Viscount de Chambrun called first at Secretary Lansing's. Former Secretary of State Elihu Root was conferring with Mr.
Lansing at the time. The clerks of the great building lined the halls and gave the Frenchmen a reception of almost continuous cheers and handclapping.

After spending a few minutes with Secretary Lansing, M. Viviani, Marshal Joffre and Admiral Cochepat went over to the White House to be formally received by President Wilson.

As the French party left the building the cheering was acknowledged by all observers to be the most enthusiastic and loudest ever heard there. The corridors of the building fairly rang with hurrahs for France.

The visitors took motor cars for the short ride from the state department to the White House. Hundreds of automobiles decorated with the French tri-color sounded their sirens and people lining the streets added to the cheering. At the main entrance of the executive mansion a large party of the President's army and navy aides in full dress uniforms met the Frenchmen. Salutes were exchanged and the distinguished guests were ushered into the blue room where President Wilson was waiting to receive them.

GERMANY TAKES FIRST PRISONER;
NAME NOT GIVEN

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
London, April 26.—The taking of the first American prisoner of war was reported to the American embassy today through the American consul at Glasgow.

It is usually the practice of the Germans to take prisoner captains of merchantmen sunk by their submarines. In view of this fact, the above dispatch may mean that an American vessel has been sunk.

MASSED ATTACKS WEST OF CROANNE USELESS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
French Headquarters in France, (Wednesday evening, April 25, from a Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press).—The Germans today unsuccessfully hurled masses of men against Hurtubise Farm, westward of Croanne. The only result of several strong German attempts to recover the territory won from them in the last week's severe fighting was an enormous sacrifice of some of their best troops.

During these attacks the correspondent watched the French artillery hurling wide salvos of shells which dropped with methodical precision on the German lines further eastward in the vicinity of Ville-Aux-Bois. The Germans were most reluctant to surrender this position as it, with Craonne, formed one of the pillars of their line here. They still hold Craonne.

BUILDERS GET INCREASE.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Elmira, O., April 26.—More than one million dollars worth of building construction in this city was resumed today following a settlement of the contractors' two-weeks lock-out of 1,000 union workmen. The settlement gives laborers 40 cents, carpenters 60 cents and bricklayers, plasterers and stonemasons 70 cents
an hour.

PROHIBITS LIQUOR ADS.
Tallahassee, Fla., April 26.—Use of the city's back streets for raising potatoes was authorized by the town council. High school boys under direction of the county fair school here will cultivate the highways.

BRITISH VISITORS SNAPPED IN CAPITAL

The camera man caught members of the visiting British commission in Washington while they were out motoring with American army officers. Left to right: Capt. J. G. Quekemyer, Seventh cavalry, U. S. A. (getting out of machine); Capt. H. H. Spender-Clay, member of the British parliament from Trumbridge Wells; Lieut. Osborn, U. S. A., and Fleet Paymaster General Vincent A. Lawford of the British navy.

HALF-HEARTED CHRISTIANITY WILL NOT GET YOU THROUGH HEAVEN'S GATE

CAMPAIGN CAPSULES.
"You wonder why you should be a Christian."
"God's particular about the class of people he has in Heaven."
"Look out, when God Almighty puts a black ball in the hat!"
"Hell's a little closer than some of you realize."
"I'd rather crawl to Heaven than ride down to Hell in the finest Pullman."
"You can't run in any 'pony' system on God, for you've got to pass in on your own merits."
"There will be some degrees to be taken up above."

Wednesday night was a big event at the tabernacle. Marshalled by Rev. S. B. Goff, the Newark God Fellows, and their respected divisions marched to the tabernacle en masse where they were royally welcomed by the huge audience. The procession made a stirring and impressive sight as they filed down the main aisle of the tabernacle which had been reserved for them. Newark is to be congratulated on such a splendid body of men. Before the coming of the delegation the chorus expended some of their pent-up harmony and enthusiasm in the rendering of favorite songs.

When Dr. Bromley came forward he congratulated the God Fellows on their turnout and after a few words of prayer by Rev. A. B. Cox he opened the floor upon the half-heartedness of some people who fully expect to reach Heaven without taking an active part as a Christian. "You can't believe in Jesus in a half-hearted way and get salvation," he said, "some people think, 'If I take a fairly benevolent view of Christianity I'll slide through into Heaven somehow.' But I say, the joy of Heaven will be apportioned according to your work and your ability."

That some people have an entirely wrong conception of Heaven was the evangelist's statement. "I believe in only one Heaven," he said. He then proceeded to give an interesting picture of Heaven. He asserted that Heaven was not a place where one did nothing but was a great deal like our earth. He pictured the different religious denominations marching into Heaven. In conclusion the requirements for entering the kingdom of Heaven were given. "There'll be some degrees up there," he shouted. "You've got to pass an examination and you can't run in any 'pony' system on God. You must pass in on your own merits."

A touching appeal was made that people realize the amount of God's love and sacrifice for mankind. He announced that God has never really reached the height of his mercy. "You wonder why you should be a Christian?"

ELKS CANCEL STATE MEET RAISE WAR FUND INSTEAD

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Aurora, Ill., April 26.—The executive committee of the Illinois Elks today decided to call off the state convention of the Illinois B. P. O. E. which was to have been held next month, and instead to raise a war relief fund of $30,000.

EVIDENCE OF PLOT AT EDDYSTONE IS GIVEN TO CORONER

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Chester, Pa., April 26.—Captain Walter M. Wilhelm, vice president and general manager of the Eddystone Ammunition Corporation, testifying today at the coroner's inquest into the explosion at the company's plant two weeks ago, said that while no conclusive evidence of the existence of a plot has been found, he did not believe the disaster was the result of an accident. He based his belief, he said, on evidence turned over to him following the company's investigation. There were 129 persons killed in the disaster. Several injured persons are still in hospitals.

"They are many things of a suspicious nature which indicate, in fact, almost prove the existence of a plot," Captain Wilhelm said. "Matches had been found in the plot room the day before the explosion. Matches were also found under the oil pans and wrapped in waste. We found before the day of the explosion shrapnel filled with screws and there were broken steel taps in the base of shells. These facts brought out in our investigation have convinced us that the explosion was caused through malice."

TEN CENT BREAD IS NEW YORK'S CHEAPEST

New York, April 26.—The price of bread will go up here Monday. The War Baking company, one of the large manufacturers, today announced that the ten cent loaf would be reduced two cents in weight and would be the cheapest sold.

The six cent loaf will be withdrawn altogether. Other big concerns are expected to follow.

Unusual Precautions to

On Without Decision—
Heavy Losses

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
New York, April 26.—The fourth day of the terrific struggle on the British front in France has opened with both sides still striving vainly for a decision. The Germans have resorted to the terribly costly tactics of massed attacks and have apparently succeeded in checking the British advance. This partial success has been won, according to spectators of the titanic conflict, at a staggering toll of human life.

It would seem as if the revolutionary movements which were swelling through Europe prior to the inception of the great battle were drowned in the thunders of the battlefield but indications are not lacking that momentous events are about to occur behind the fighting lines. The summary adjournment of the Reichstag when its sittings had barely opened, is given added significance by hints in the German press that the strike agitation in Germany may burst forth with renewed violence on May Day, the great international Socialist holiday. A nation-wide labor demonstration in Sweden is also planned for that day and may have its counterpart in Spain.

No news of any importance has come from Austria in several days, a fact which has given fresh vigor to the ever-recurring report of intentions or efforts on the part of the dual monarchy to seek a separate peace. No confirmation of the reports is available, from any reliable source, but there is more definite tidings of the status of affairs in Turkey, the third member of Germany's imperial triumvirate. Returning travelers tell appalling stories of the devastations wrought by disease and starvation in the Ottoman empire. They also repeat the oft-told story that the Turkish people are sick at heart over the war and its entailed miseries but are kept in submission by the iron hand of Enver Bey and his German colleagues.

A striking example of the rigidity of the German censorship is afforded by the news that no German newspaper is allowed to leave the empire without being passed by the government officials. Wire fences charged with electricity have also been erected along the German-Swiss frontier and every possible precaution has been taken to prevent the details of what is transpiring within the realms of the Central Powers from reaching the rest of the world.

Apart from France there are few developments of importance in the war theatres. The British continue to drive forward in Mesopotamia but there is a curious silence in regard to the Russian advance in that region. An attack on a fairly large scale.

QUARTER MILLION
BERLIN LABORERS
STRIKE FOR PEACE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, April 26.—Reports to the state department through official channels tell of a strike of 250,000 laborers in Berlin. While the name of the official who gave the information is withheld the department says the incident shows the growth of desire for peace on the part of the workmen. It is reported also that bread rations have been reduced from 1900 to 1600 grams per week.

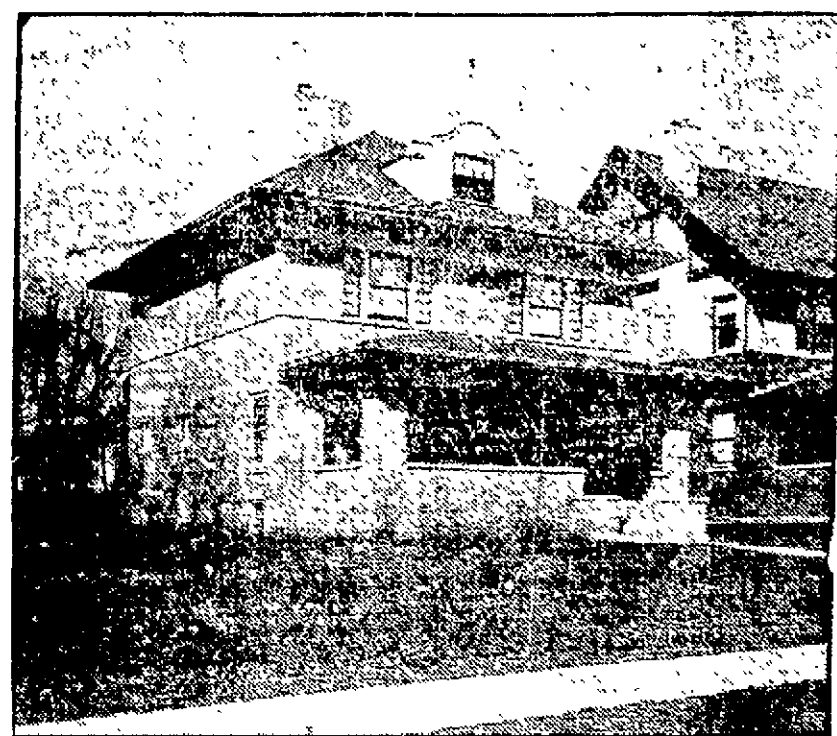

Newspaper reports from Berlin issued in summarized form by the state department today say that as a result of the continuing strike at Elbing the commander in chief of that district has issued orders directing munition workers under leave of absence from the front to resume work before April 30. Unless the order is obeyed the statement said, the workers would have to report immediately to military headquarters. Under threat of that penalty the workers resumed their labor.

FROST WARNING IS SENT OUT BY WEATHER BUREAU

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Columbus, Ohio, April 26.—Frost warnings for tonight were issued today by the United States weather bureau here. Tender plants should be protected, the weather man says. The lowest temperature is expected to be between 34 and 36 degrees. April 15 is the latest date at which freezing temperatures, which could produce frosts are normally expected.

FRENCH PARTY IS RECEIVED BY THE PRESIDENT

differed from that accorded Foreign Minister Balfour and his British associates in that it included all the members of the French mission.

Minister Viviani, Marshal Joffre, Admiral Cochet and Inspector General of Public Instruction Hovelacque entered first and were followed by the others.

Since neither Minister Viviani, nor Marshal Joffre speak English, M. Hovelacque acted as interpreter. The President shook hands warmly with Marshal Joffre and the other members of the mission and they chatted for about ten minutes. Then the other members of the mission were taken in and introduced to the President.

Immediately after seeing the President, M. Viviani went to the capitol, accompanied by Assistant Secretary Phillips.

Leaving an automobile, set aside for his use, standing in front of the White House, Marshal Joffre, accompanied by Colonel Spencer Cosby of the army, and Lieutenant Commander Robert L. Berry of the Navy, walked from the executive mansion to the state war and navy building. The marshal was dressed in the full uniform of his rank with red trousers, red cap, leather boots and several orders glistening on his breast.

Walking through the White House grounds the marshal asked many questions about the history of the mansion and was deeply interested in the answers by Colonel Cosby, former military attaché at Paris and former military aide to the President. Every employee in the executive offices rushed out to see the marshal. He smiled and saluted as they broke into applause.

An automobile trip to the principal points of interest in the national capital was arranged for the entire party in the afternoon.

Meantime, subordinate members of the commission planned to hold preliminary conferences with American naval, military and financial representatives.

The day's activities were to be brought to a close with a dinner at the White House by President Wilson in honor of the Frenchmen.

Sever service operatives and police in plain clothes were stationed at the various places visited by the Frenchmen today, while a detachment of soldiers remained constantly on guard at the White residence.

The British war mission, headed by Foreign Minister Balfour, held preliminary meetings today with government officials in preparation for the joint conferences among the American, British and French representatives which begin tomorrow.

Marshal Joffre and Admiral Cochet returned to the building to pay calls on the secretary of war and the secretary of the navy. The reappearance of the marshal was marked by a reception no less vociferous than the one a few minutes before. For the victor of the Marne was reserved a shout each time he came in sight. The high voices of the women clerks always led the cheering.

All the general officers on duty in Washington, including Major General Scott, were present.

President Wilson was deeply impressed by the members of the French commission, particularly with M. Viviani and Marshal Joffre.

In the brief exchange of greetings the President told them how deeply the American people appreciated the action of the French republic in sending the commission to the United States and Minister Viviani replied saying that the French people felt very deeply the bond of friendship between the two nations cemented by the entrance of the United States into the war.

While Marshal Joffre and his aides were calling on Secretary Baker and the American army officers, Admiral Cochet and his aides were calling on Secretary Daniels. In the meantime M. Viviani had gone to the capitol and visited Vice President Marshall. The former premier was invited to address the Senate at some later time and it was said it might be arranged. A similar arrangement is being considered for British Foreign Minister Balfour.

No further functions were on the program for the day.

While at the White House, M. Viviani presented to President Wilson a letter from President Poincaré.

VOTE SATURDAY ON NEW ARMY MEASURE, DEBATE CONTINUES

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, April 26.—The army bill continued to thread its way through debate in both houses of Congress today under a constant fire of attack from those who oppose selective conscription and ardently defended by those who support the administration plan. First prospect of a vote appeared in the House where it was agreed that general debate should close with adjournment today and leave only the summing up speeches by leaders of each side. Tomorrow, Chairman Dent of the military committee, will close the argument for the committee's volunteer amendment and Representative Kahn, ranking Republican of the committee, will close for the administration selective conscription plan.

Then the bill will be considered by the House under the five minute rule with prospects of a vote probably Friday night or Saturday.

An agreement to vote upon and finally dispose of the bill not later than Saturday night was reached in the Senate.

The Senate agreement made by unanimous consent, promises a final vote not later than midnight Saturday and possibly earlier in the day. It also provides that no other business shall be considered in the meantime and that, if any senator desires to speak, no adjournment or recess shall be taken.

The Senate agreed informally, however, that by unanimous consent, if he member desires to proceed with his army bill, other business may be brought up without objection. Senator Overman secured this "gentleman's understanding" in order that both houses may dispose of the administration bill permitting the enlistment to recruit their citizens in this country, which Attorney General Gregory today asked Mr. Overman to expedite.

Hisses from the galleries greeted Representative Mason, Republican of Illinois, today when he assailed President Wilson for failing to accept immediately Colonel Roosevelt's offer to raise a division for service in France. A few members joined in the demonstration.

"The man in the White House hasn't the courage or political sagacity to permit the colonel to enlist or fear he will profit politically," was the sentence which drew the hissing.

Co-operation with the allies was urged in the Senate by Senator Hale who said this country is not fighting solely because of wrongs and misdeeds suffered from Germany. He contended the volunteer system will not reach the needs of the nation when its motives in entering the war are considered.

The moral effect of even a small American force opposed to Germany, Senator Hale said would be great.

When Senator Hale concluded his address he began yesterday, opposing the administration bill.

"I shall not permit this gentleman to speak of military experience," he said. "I do not regard his experience or information any more highly than they would regard mine on how to conduct military operations in an army."

He stated that officers are being selected and not drafted. Senator Sherman said Major General Wood has been sent to Europe to organize and that Mr. Gregory was named to be a general by the administration.

DRAFT EXEMPTED GERMANS.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Amsterdam, April 26, via London.—A Berlin official announcement received here says that the German war office has ordered a great number of exemptions to be drafted for field service. They will be replaced in the war industries by women and those liable for the national auxiliary service.

NEWARK OUGHT TO ENROLL NOT LESS THAN 5,000

We are all for preparedness now. The apathy prevalent a short time ago has given way to fierce activity. We are woefully shy though on the "Red Cross." A few figures will not go amiss. Japan, with a population of 40,000,000, has 1,800,000 members of the Red Cross.

Germany, with a population of 67,000,000, has over 1,000,000 members.

The United States, with its 100,000,000 population, has less than 300,000 members.

There is plenty of work ahead. We all can't fight but we all can give $1.00 to relieve the suffering and distress caused by the fighting.

Newark ought to enroll at least 5,000 members. No active service is required. Just a dollar helps you to share in the greatest philanthropic work of the time.

Do your "bit." Join the Red Cross. Headquarters will open Saturday or possibly tomorrow at No. 16 Arcade.

Early Marriage in China.
It is nothing rare in China for boys twelve to fourteen years old to marry.

The physical, moral and intellectual development of the contracting parties has nothing to do with the matter. Other considerations entirely regulate the affair.

An old Chinese aphorism says that the great business of life is ended when the sons and daughters are married. The Chinese parents do not care to run the danger of postponing the marriage of their children, especially of their sons, until after their own death.—Lix change.

AUSTRIA CONVOKES
PARLIAMENT FOR ACTION ON FOOD

(Associated Press Telegram)

Vienna, April 26, via London.—Official announcement was made here today that the Austrian government had decided to convocate parliament for May 3 to "deal with questions of food supply and with economic, social and financial problems."

The Austrian parliament has not been in session since before the war. According to unofficial dispatches from Vienna the government delayed action on account of the prospect of a stormy session.

The assassination of Premier Sturgis last fall was due to his failure to convene parliament, according to the explanation made by Dr. Friedrich Adler, his assailant.

GRIGSBY IN STUPOR WAS FOUND AT "BALLS BLUFF"

Residents in the neighborhood of "Balls Bluff," North Duena Vista "Balls Bluff," north Cedar street, called the police department yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, stating that a dead man, partly disrobed, was lying in the ravine. A hurry run was made by the police patrol and looking down from the top of the bluff the form of a man apparently lifeless was plainly seen. The perilous descent was made and upon arrival at the side of the supposed corpse it was found to be Burton Grigsby, in a stupor from having inhaled too freely of something besides grapejuice. Patrolman Edward Hurbach revived him with a few buckets of cold water and then he delivered a lecture that for forcefulness could scarcely be equaled. Grigsby's clothes, which he had removed, were placed upon him, a rope was tied around his waist, alpine fashion, and the climb to the top of the bluff was started. It was an arduous task and was finally accomplished and this morning Mayor Hulse fined Grigsby $5 and the costs.

OHIO MILLERS ON RECORD FAVORING
SELECTIVE DRAFT

(Associated Press Telegram)

Columbus, O., April 26.—Ohio Millers adopted resolutions at their convention here today favoring the proposed universal selective military draft system. Farmers were urged to increase their wheat acreage. The millers adopted resolutions opposing the proposition of raising more whole wheat flour on the grounds that it would reduce the output of stock feed. Protests were also adopted against the 15 per cent. increase in freight rates.

The following officers were selected: President, L. B. Miller, Springfield; vice president, J. B. Finner, Osborne; treasurer, Frank H. Tanner, Columbus; members of the executive committee, W. F. Coup, Mt. Vernon; E. M. Stults, Massillon; L. C. Chase, Mansfield; J. A. Long, London; and L. W. Dewey, Manchester. The executive committee will select the new secretary.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.
Do Not Lose Sleep.
Dr. Richard C. Cabot, the well known physician, says in an article on health in the American Magazine:

"To avoid overeating and alcohol and the tobacco habit are matters of self control. To get the sleep one needs (which means all that one can possibly soak into one's system within twenty-four hours) often takes courage, to invite ridicule, to seem odd or puritanic. I believe that more minor illnesses are due to lack of sleep than to any other recognizable factor. A person catches cold, gets lunacy, is constipated or headache ridden because his vitality is below par. His physical expenditure beyond his physical income. Sleep would set him square with the world, but to get sleep means sacrificing the evening's fun. This he won't do, and so he runs in debt and is chronically drifting toward a breakdown."

BELIEVE IT OR NOT TONO-NERVE DID IT

GREAT NERVE TONIC SET MAN BACK ON HIS FEET.

If you were sick would you take a medicine that will make you well and strong again is the question that I would ask those who suffer as I have with nervousness and inability to properly digest my food. I tried a bottle of Tono-Nerve and have regained my health. I sleep well, don't have trouble with my nerves. I feel like a new man and cannot say enough for Tono-Nerve.

Mr. E. F. Fitzpatrick, 54 S. Prospect St., Akron, Ohio, makes the above statement. If you have lost your ambition and pep, if your appetite is gone and what you eat distresses you and gives you no strength, Tono-Nerve is the medicine you need.

lets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

THE RED CROSS.

In view of the fact that thousands of Americans are daily joining the Red Cross and millions are asking what they can do to help the Red Cross work, the May number of the Red Cross Magazine, just out, appears in the form of a Red Cross handbook.

Instead of devoting its pages as usual to special articles telling of current activities of the great relief organization, the magazine gives in popular and readable chapters the complete story of the Red Cross—its history and the work that it is doing and will do for Uncle Sam's fighting forces as soon as they are sent to Europe.

The activities of the Red Cross are so manifold and its organization consequently so intricate, that outsiders frequently have difficulty in understanding it or realizing where they can find their niches in its service. The May number of the magazine makes these points clear.

Particularly interesting to the public are the chapters on the volunteer service of men and women outside of the professional nursing and surgical organization which travels with the army. A woman who desires actual war experience can go with the nursing detachment as a nurse's aid, as a matron of the nurse's dormitory in some base hospital, as a superintendent of war hospital housekeeping, or as part of the Red Cross service which will furnish coffee and other light refreshments to the army marching on in the trenches. She can stay at home and make bandages and garments for wounded soldiers, she can help at the various Red Cross headquarters in the collection and shipment of hospital supplies, or she can help in the important Red Cross service of keeping in touch with the families of absent soldiers to see that they do not suffer.

There are eighteen Red Cross occupations for men at the front or at home, ranging from the services of packers in home supply depots to private in the ambulance companies at the front. Men, too, can be of much service in handling the detail at the various city and town headquarters of the Red Cross in this country.

The history of the Red Cross movement and its American organization, a readable account of what it does with the army at the front, the relief it has borne to the victims of great disasters in this country and throughout the world, its services to the wounded in the present war from Beirut to Archangel and from Liverpool to Vladivostok, how it is educating the nation in first-aid and hygiene, and how its present membership campaign is being conducted, are subjects treated in the magazine.

The magazine goes free to Red Cross members paying the annual fee of $2.00. The Newark chapter of the Red Cross now organizing should have a membership of several thousand people. The fee is one dollar. No. 16 Arcade will be the headquarters for the Newark Chapter.

We can't all go to the front or join the army or the navy, but everybody can and should do his "bit." One good way to help the cause is to become a member of the Newark Chapter of the American Red Cross. The membership costs a dollar.

GERMANIZING GIPSIES.

If Germany retains political control of Rumania, not the least difficult of the problems involved in the government of that country may prove to be the management of the large Gipsy population.

According to the latest reliable statistics, as given in the Encyclopaedia Britannica, the number of those essentially independent people in Rumania in 1896 was between 200,000 and 250,000, and was exceeded in only one other country, namely, Hungary, which had in 1893 a Gipsy population of 274,940 in the Transylvanian Division.

Through it is difficult enough to imagine a German becoming Gipsified, it is a still greater task upon the imagination to visualize a Germanized Gipsy.

Nobody knows with certainty how the Gipsies originated. Ethnologists think they are descended from an obscure Hindu tribe, and there is linguistic evidence in support of this theory. But there are other explanations which are by no means incredible, and after considering all of them, one is forced to the conclusion that nobody certainly knows how the Gipsy came to be. Probably the most prevalent of the merely popular theories is that these picturesque people came from Egypt, and it appears that the term "Gipsie" is a corruption of Egyptian.

In Rumania, according to the Britannica, "the Gipsies, who are mostly converts to the Orthodox Church, cling to their vagabond existence, though their skill at handicrafts finds them ready employment in the towns. During their centuries of slavery, they were organized into castes, as musicians, metal workers, masons, etc.; but after about 1850 the bands of caste were gradually relaxed and Gipsies began to intermarry with Rumanians."

That the Rumanian Gipsies have little reason to hope for much consideration from the Germans is indicated by the following quotation from Dr. Moses Gaster's article in the Britannica: "The history of the legal status of the Gipsies, of their treatment in various countries and of the penalties and inflictions to which they have been subjected, would form a remarkable chapter in the history of modern civilization. The materials are slowly accumulating and it is interesting to note as one of the latest instances, that no drive was undertaken in Germany against the Gipsies, while fact may account for the appearance of some of the German Gipsies in England in that year, and that in 1904 the Prussian Landtag adopted unanimously a proposition to examine anew the question of granting peddling licenses to German Gipsies; that on the 17th of February, 1906, the Prussian minister issued special instructions to combat the Gipsy nuisance; and that in various parts of Germany and Austria a special register is kept for the tracing of the genealogy of vagrant and sedentary Gipsy families."

We are strongly advocating President Wilson's selective conscription plan for raising an army, but at the same time we should like very much to see some way provided to enable Colonel Roosevelt to go to the front with a division, as he desires. "Teddy" carrying the flag in France at the head of a division of Americans would be an inspiration to the people of the United States and the Allies.

The French war pictures to be shown tonight at the Auditorium are worth seeing and the entertainment is for a worthy cause.

PROHIBITION IN CHINA.

(Munsey's Magazine.)
Legalized traffic in opium ceased in China on the 1st of April. The great fight of a nation against national vice was won. When the struggle began ten years ago, no other country was so addicted to a deadly drug. The traffic was in the control of a mighty combination strongly rooted in the very foundations of the government, and the nation was powerless against the ever-increasing importation of the seductive narcotic.

Victory would have been won more easily could China have waged the war against her own people alone. International complications entered into the problem. While the native production was ten times the amount sent in by foreign countries, she was nevertheless useless for China to destroy one of her most profitable crops as long as importation continued.

India, whence came the bulk of the imports, was unwilling to give up a trade that had brought her Indian opium-growers more than two billion dollars in profits. To interfere with this trade was to arouse British hostility, and China had fought and lost two wars with England over the same issue. The result had been to establish Shanghai and Hong-Kong as the two great opium markets of the world.

In 1911 an agreement was reached whereby India promised to cease the exportation of opium to China if China would discontinue the cultivation of the poppy plant. The suppression of opium became a national issue, a fight against self-interest, bribery, and the object of rescuing the wretched victims of the habit, rebuilding the man-power of the land, and winning the respect and regard of Western nations.

The government at Peking has now asked Great Britain to depute a commission to ascertain how China has fulfilled her part of the bargain. This commission, say the Chinese authorities, will find the sale of the drug absolutely prohibited, the internal traffic destroyed, and the poppy plantations swept away.

Two facts significant of the success of the efforts of the Chinese government appear in recent official reports. They are the statement of the American consul-general at Hong Kong that 1916 was the last year in which the opium trade of that port would be a factor of any consequence, and the statement that the opium combine of Shanghai, its six-year-million-dollar bribe, refused has practically gone out of business.

In the suppression of a gigantic national evil China has set a very striking example to the Western world. Considering the difficulties to be overcome, her achievement is greater even than France's victory over absinth, or Russia's over vodka.

Spirit of the Press

An Interesting Fight.
President Wilson, the House of Representatives, the United States Senate and the informed and thinking people of the United States are going to win the selective draft fight against eight members of the Military Affairs Committee. Watch the fight.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Von Hindenburg as a Military Chief.
Von Hindenburg's slow retreat does not mean he is a poor general. Maybe he is doing better than any other German leader could do. As a matter of fact only a great genius would have any chance to hold fast now on the western battle front, and maybe even a great genius would fail. The world must wait until after the war to judge Von Hindenburg his proper place as a military chief. It is not always the winner who is the most gifted.—Savannah News.

Volunteer System.
As army recruits for the first three weeks of April averaged about 9,000 a week, it will require only a little over 111 weeks or something more than two years to enroll the first 1,000,000; and as about 700,000 other men are needed to bring the present Regular establishment and the National Guard up to war strength, we ought to get going under our present system, about September, 1920.—Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

The Army of the Farm.
America, having entered the war, has to raise two armies without delay. One is for domestic defense, the other for service overseas. Yet the equivalent of another and even larger army must be enlisted. It is the army of the farm.—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Teutons Pay Heavy Toll.
The Central powers have paid dearly for their "sink-at-sight" submarine campaign in cargo ships and liners they have forfeited. Almost 1,000,000 tons of merchant shipping is the toll it cost them for forcing America into the war. The United States has seized over 720,000 in German and Austrian tonnage in its ports alone and Brazil has confiscated over 250,000 tons. Cuba has taken possession of several German vessels and in case the rest of the Central and South American republics break with Berlin about 600,000 tons more will be released for use of the Allies.—Buffalo Commercial.

Did You Know?
That our forests now cover 550,000,000 acres, or about one-fourth of the United States? Forests publicly owned contain one-fifth of all timber standing. The original forests of the United States contained timber in quantity and variety far beyond that of any other area of similar size in the world. There were five great forest regions—the Northern, the Southern, the Central, the Rocky Mountain and the Pacific. The present rate of cutting for all purposes undoubtedly exceeds the annual growth of the forests. The great pluries of the Lake States are nearing exhaustion and heavy inroads have been made upon the supply of valuable timber throughout all parts of the country. We take from our forests yearly, including waste in logging and in manufacture, more than 22,000,000,000 cubic feet of wood, valued at about $1,375,000,000.

Do You Like Them?

"The reason, though, is plain to see," Responded Mr. Farinks; "Disqualified he sure must be because he has no larynx."

The Awkward Age.

that have to go over their heads,
some of us, especially those not any too familiar with babies, cease to breathe until the tiny head and poor little tortured arms emerge quite whole and undislocated.It may not be that very serious injury results from the overhead dresses but that the children are made uncomfortable during the process, and sometimes even sharply hurt, there is no doubt. All the dresses that the wise woman makes are not very long, being not more than a foot below the little socked feet and these dresses should button clear to the hem.They should open all the way down and be put on like aprons, not over the head. As a consequence dressing will not be an unpleasant process and besides the heart of the laundress will be delighted because the little slips can be so easily ironed.Obituary*Elias John.Elias John, aged 75 years, a vet-

4-26-17Milady's Boudoir*"Making Up In Public."Years ago it was considered bad taste to do any part of one's toilet outside one's boudoir, but in these days we see women powdering their noses, applying lip sticks, and "fixing" their hair in almost every public place.Wherever we look we see them holding up a tiny mirror while they palestakingly powder their faces;
and, horrors of horrors! yes, rouge their cheeks and lips. When they have completed this process they complacently go their way, no blush of embarrassment showing through the artificial complexion.If true art is to conceal art, then they are very inartistic, for the result is as glaring as the breach of good taste. Of course no one is deceived—no one could be but a blind man, and it isn't done for him. There is a monotonous pink and white sameness in women's complexions—
they are neither blondes nor rus-seted any more, nor pale nor brown faces, just a tiresome procession of whitewashed noses and evenly roug-ed cheeks.And the men—what do they think of it? Why they laugh at it, not too respectfully, and they resent it as a breach of good manners, and they are more embarrassed by the spectacle than the girl herself.There is no doubt that women do these things to make themselves attractive and win the admiration of men. If they are only making themselves odious and ridiculous, isn't that reason enough for attending to those details in private?Condensation Suit.A jury in probate court today is

IF YOU WANT CLEAN HEALTHY LUXURANT HAIR
IF YOU WANT TO STOP HAIR FALLING
IF YOU WANT TO PREVENT ITCHING OF THE SCALP

Use Kreamol Shampoo

KREAMOL not only removes the dust, dirt and dandruff but brings out the life and lustre of the hair—keeps it soft, fresh and healthy in appearance.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR

is simply the result of giving it the proper care and attention. Frequent and regular washing is necessary to keep it fresh and clean. Discriminating women—the women who care—have found by experience that the best thing to use is Kreamol.

IT GIVES SATISFACTORY RESULTS.—HERE IS POSITIVE PROOF

Mrs. Frank Thornton, Athens, Ohio, writes:—"Your Kreamol Shampoo gives entire satisfaction. It removes dandruff and gives a gloss to the hair, that other kinds of shampoo does not give. After using it my friends remarked: 'What a pretty gloss your hair has,' and I answered: 'Kreamol Shampoo has done that.'"

Mrs. J. M. Fenton, Swanton, Ohio, writes:—"Your Kreamol Shampoo is the finest I have ever used. It left my hair soft and silky and made it easy to put up. It is easy to wash one's hair with Kreamol."

Mrs. Daisy Isom, Bloomington, Ind., writes:—"I will never be without Kreamol Shampoo again. It is a necessity. For cleaning the hair and scalp, your Kreamol is unequalled. I can and certainly will recommend it to my friends."

Mrs. J. E. Kincaid, Helena, Ga., writes:—"I have found your Kreamol Shampoo to be the most wonderful shampoo I have ever used, and I have tried a great many different kinds. It stops falling hair, cleans the hair and scalp, prevents dandruff and gives the hair a luxuriant appearance. I wish everyone might know of this wonderful shampoo."

KREAMOL CLEANS THE SCALP—GIVES THE HAIR A CHANCE TO GROW
NEVER USE A CHEAP, ORDINARY SOAP TO WASH YOUR HAIR. Such soap is likely to contain too much alkali and will dry the scalp and is liable to make the hair hard and brittle.

You can get KREAMOL at any drug store. A 50 cent bottle should last a family many weeks. Get a bottle of Kreamol today and try it. YOU WILL BE MORE THAN PLEASED.

Kreamol is Sold at Evans' Drug Store (Warden Hotel Block), Newark, Ohio, and Ullman's Drug Store, Granville, Ohio.

Ambulance Film Gets Big Showing.

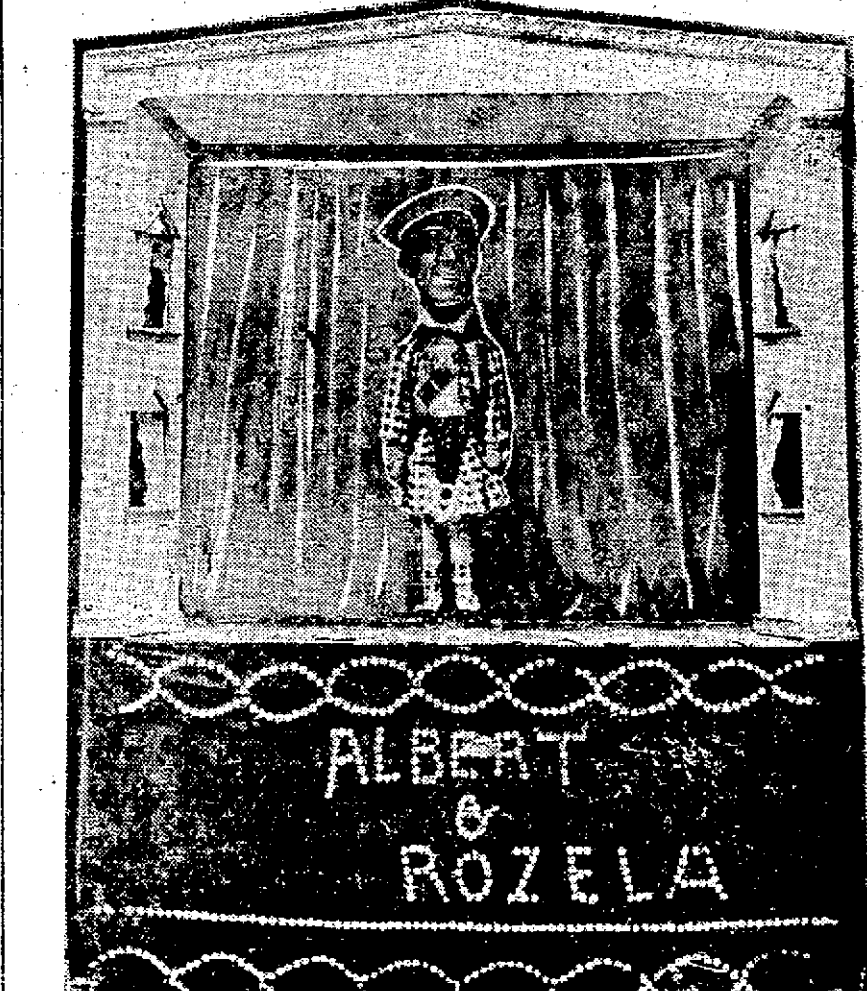

On October 24 a notable gathering of international celebrities visited the Triangle projection room to witness a showing of "Our American Boys in the European War," the film of the American Ambulance Field Service.

Among those present were M. Lausanne, editor of the Matin, and Madame Lausanne, Mrs. Wm. K. Vanderbilt, Miss Anne Morgan, Mrs. Seth Barton French, Miss Elizabeth Marbury, Miss Elizabeth Jordan, editor of Harper's Bazar; Marquis de Polignac, M. Marcel Knecht, Lieut. Z. Pechkoff of the Franco-American Flying Corps, who had an opportunity to see himself on the screen; Captain A. Platt Andrew, Inspector General of the American Ambulance Field Service; Mr. Henry D. Sleeper of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Irving Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Irving Anderson, and a number of special writers and well known editors. Before the picture was run the affair took on the air of an informal reception, as M. Lausanne and his party of distinguished Frenchmen had come over on the Lafayette with Mrs. Vanderbilt and Captain Andrew, and it was the first reunion on American soil.

Mrs. Vanderbilt, who was to have addressed the audience, found that she was restrained from telling of the splendid work of the ambulance by having sold her story to a magazine for a large sum, which she promptly turned over to the Field Service.

Grenville Keogh, the young son of Judge and Mrs. Keogh of New Rochelle, was the hero of the after-noon. Keogh was wounded while driving his ambulance at Verdun, in June, and came back home last week on a furlough. Much embarrassed he sought the darkest corner of the projection room, when Captain Andrew started to tell the story of his heroism in sticking to his ambulance when it plunged over a cliff, with its driver's arm shattered by a shell.

Trying to hide his wounded arm, which still hangs stiff, Keogh stammered, "Oh, this isn't fair—why, it's nothing at all. I wouldn't know I was ever wounded. Am I going back?"—well I just guess I am. It is the most wonderful thing in the world to be with the Field Service, working for France."

Captain Andrew addressed the audience informally.

These are the films that will be shown at the Auditorium tonight, commencing at 7 p. m. The proceeds all to go to the American Ambulance Fund. Special music, with Red Cross ushers, ticket sellers, etc. This being for a most worthy cause, no doubt a large crowd will attend the different showings this evening.

"The Argyle Case."

The feature on the program of the Auditorium theatre on tomorrow will be Robert Warwick in his first Selznick-Picture, "The Argyle Case."

This is an adaptation of the famous detective drama that ran for two years on Broadway in New York and toured the country with immense success several seasons ago.

The story of "The Argyle Case" is one that will hold every spectator enthralled from beginning to end. It starts with the absorbing mystery of the murder of Old John Argyle, an eccentric millionaire. Suspicion falls upon Argyle's adopted daughter Mary, and while the police are trying to amass enough evidence to convict her Asche Kayton, private detective extraordinary, is called in to prove her innocence. In accomplishing this the trail leads into the den of the

"The Argyle Case."

A number of realistically staged scenes and thrilling scenes are the most noticeable features in "An Hour to Live," third episode of this serial. The interest, suspense and mystery are all well maintained throughout, and strong enough to carry the interest of the audience to the next installment. The drop from the roof of a five-story house from a broken plank, and the plunging of an automobile over a high cliff provide a few thrills to be found in this episode. See it at the Grand on next Sunday.

ALHAMBRA.

Tonight.

Sensational situations, splendid characterizations, thrills and throbs mark the swift progress of "The Social Leper" through the five reels in which it is told. This fascinating new World picture Brady-made, with Carlyle Blackwell and June Elvidge in the principal roles, will be shown at the Alhambra theater tonight.

How valuable paintings are smuggled into this country under the guise of cheap prints is graphically exposed in the Pallas-Paramount production of "The Bond Between" in which that sterling actor, George Beban, will be seen at the Alhambra Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Beban is the author of the story as well as the star of the production, and obtained his knowledge of this method of smuggling from a friend of his in the New York custom house.

BRAZIL CAN PUT BIG ARMY IN FIELD

Has Reserve Force of More Than 500,000 Men.

READY FOR QUICK ACTION

National Geographic Society Says
Republic Has Available Unorganized
Military Strength of 4,300,000—After Severing Relations With Germany
She May Decide to Enter War.

Because of the tenseness of the international situation and the report that Brazil and other South American countries may follow the United States into the war, the National Geographic Society of Washington has issued a statement about the military and naval strength of Brazil. The southern republic's reserves and regular army constitute, it is said, a fighting force half as large as the total war strength of all the other South American countries combined.

"Should Brazil, like the United States, be forced into war with Germany, her peace time nucleus of an army (25,000 men), will be supplemented by a well organized and thoroughly trained police force of 20,000 men equipped for military service," reads the statement. "The strength of the South American republic's reserve army is in excess of 500,000 men, while the total available unorganized strength of the nation is 4,300,000 from a population slightly less than a fourth as large as that of the United States."

"For nine years Brazil has had in force a universal military service law, every Brazilian between the ages of twenty-one and forty-five being affected. The terms of service under this law require two years in the ranks, followed by seven years in the army reserve, seven years in the territorial army and eight years in the national guard."

Annual Training.
"Reservists are called up for four weeks' training annually and are given rifle practice once a month. The territorial army's training varies from two to four weeks a year."

"The total available unorganized military strength of Brazil exceeds by 500,000 men the total organized military strength of Italy at the time the latter country entered the world war. The war strength of the country is twice as great as that of Portugal, five times greater than that of Norway, exceeds that of Greece, of Serbia and of Bulgaria. Its reserves and regular army constitute a fighting force half as large as the total war strength of all the other countries of South America combined."

"Of the South American republics only three A. B. C. powers have navies of appreciable strength. The personnel, officers and men of Brazil is equal to the combined strength of Chile and Argentina. The pride of the Brazilian navy are her two modern dreadnaughts of 19,000 tons displacement and with an armament of twelve twelve-inch guns each. Contracts were under consideration for the building of a superdreadnaught with fifteen inch guns at the time the European war began, and the naval construction yards of all the belligerent powers found their hands full supplying the needs of their own governments."

Brazil's Fighting Ships.
"Two old battleships, laid down in 1898, and two protected cruisers of 3,500 tons displacement each comprise the remainder of Brazil's major fighting ships, supplemented by five torpedo gunboats, ten Yarrow destroyers, four first class torpedo boats, four destroyers, a mine ship and three submarines."

"The country has three naval arsenals—at Rio de Janeiro, Para and Lado de Matto Grosso, the last named a river arsenal."

"The infantry is equipped with Mauser rifles, while the field and horse artillery use a Krupp gun. The military budget for 1915 amounted to $28,000,000."

"If Brazil should be drawn into the war it would mark the entry into the lists against autocracy of the third largest republic in the world, for in extent of territory the South American nation is exceeded only by Russia and the United States, already engaged in the conflict. The republic of China, which is fourth in area (Mongolia and Tibet not included), has already severed diplomatic relations with the imperial German government."

"In studying the trend of events in Brazil it is interesting to note that one of the most significant movements during 1916 was the organization of the League in Favor of the Allies, formed by many of the leading men of the nation to express sympathy with France and her allies. At the close of the year there was agitation for the taking over of all the German shipping in Brazilian ports."

The Nation's Blind.
Eleven per cent of the country's blind were sightless at birth or became blind within the first year, 20 per cent lost their sight under the age of twenty, 47 per cent between the ages of twenty and sixty-four and 21 per cent in old age, the census bureau reports.

Today's Beauty Hint

It is not necessary to shampoo your hair so frequently. It is entirely and properly cleansed each time by the use of a really good shampoo. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers is one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair and may be enjoyed at very little expense, by dissolving a teaspoonful of cantharid, which can be obtained from any druggist, in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. This when rubbed into the scalp and onto every strand of hair, chemically dissolves all impurities. It is very soothing and cooling in its action, as well as beneficial to both scalp and hair. After rinsing out the lather so created, you will find the scalp is fresh, clean and free from dandruff, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.

FEELS YOUNGER EVERY DAY NOW

Lancaster Woman, 59, Walks
Two Miles to Work and Back.

TANLAC MADE IT POSSIBLE.

It's two miles from the Roy Strickler glass factory to 530 South Screamer street, Lancaster, where Mrs. Sallie Dupler lives. Mrs. Dupler is fifty-nine years old, yet she walks the two miles to the factory to work every morning, and after working eight hours, she feels strong enough to walk merrily home again and help with the household.

In talking about her good health at her home, Mrs. Dupler said:

"For about four years my joints and muscles were sore and stiff. I ached in my bones and was so tired and worn out all the time that I didn't feel like doing anything."

"I had no appetite and anything I ate seemed to disagree with me. I was restless and nervous and couldn't sleep good at night. I would lie awake for hours, and when I did get to sleep it didn't seem to rest me. In the mornings I was so tired and sore and stiff that I could hardly get out of bed."

"When I'd sit down my arms and legs would go to sleep. I just dragged around. I tried nearly everything, but got only temporary relief. I kept getting worse until I tried Tanlac."

"I had heard about how it was helping so many people, and I thought I would try it. Now I eat and sleep fine, in fact a great deal better than I have for years."

"I am now working in the Strickler glass factory as a packer. The factory is two miles from my home, and I walk to and from work every day. I feel younger every day instead of older, and I give Tanlac the credit for it all."

"I believe Tanlac will help anybody who feels like I did. It seems to go to the bottom of a person's trouble and fix you up so you stay well."

Tanlac may be obtained in Newark at W. A. Erman's drug store and in the following nearby towns: Alexandria, C. M. Gilmore; Pataskala, J. R. Strine; Granville, W. P. Ullman; Hebron, Hebron Drug Co.

IF TOO FAT GET MORE FRESH AIR

BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT. TAKE OIL OF KOREAN.

Lack of fresh air, it is said, weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs is hindered thereby. The best remedy for this is to work in an effort and the benefit of the fresh air is obtained.

Put on a good indoor life is unhealthy, and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout take it matter in hand at once. Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unwholesome fat.

Spend some time daily in the open air, breathe deeply, and get from any druggist a small box of oil of Korean capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night. Also follow the simple directions that come with the box.

A testing supply of oil of Korean capsules, with interesting book, will be mailed free on plain envelope if you write to Korean Company, 212 A. Arden, East 24th Street, New York, N. Y.

With yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are back to normal. Oil of Korean is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, dispels the aggression, and even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight.

MANY ACRES IN LICKING COUNTY WILL NOT BE CULTIVATED UNLESS MORE HELP IS PROMPTLY SECURED

The Licking county branch of the National Defense Council met in the office of Member William E. Hopkins in the Hibbard & Schaus building, and discussed plans for the nation's increased food production.

It developed at the meeting that scores of farmers will be unable to get their land cultivated, War Food Commissioner Thomas Adams reporting a number of such cases. Tracts of from ten to as high as one hundred and twenty acres will be idle unless some means can be provided to turn the soil and make it ready for planting.

It was suggested that a canvass be made for tractor plows all over the county, such plows being capable of turning seven acres per day, and that they be rented if necessary, and be requisitioned for use of farmers unable to secure sufficient help to till their lands. Member Frank R. Dunn, president of the board of county commissioners, was appointed chairman of a committee to solicit the county for such tractor plows. Chairman Dunn has an extensive acquaintance in the rural community and he does not anticipate any trouble in securing a large number of tractors.

The question of plowing and sowing for winter wheat will be taken up later and it is believed by that time that things will be in such shape that there will be little trouble to till all available ground. Any number of farmers state that in case they can not secure the necessary help they will gladly turn over their acreage to the war food commission for cultivation.

Superintendent of County Schools Elmer W. Jordan now has 250 boys at work on the farm, having given permission for them to withdraw for the present semester. He states that there are 1,000 boys 15 years of age and over in the high schools of the county, available to meet the daily increased demand for farm laborers, and these young men will be placed at the disposal of the Licking County Defense Council.

A call came in to Secretary Hopkins today from Houston Place south of Granville, for ten laborers to assist a landscape gardener. Mr. Hopkins was unable to furnish the men as everyone is busy and farmers cannot get help enough, but he took up the matter with President Chamberlain of Denison University and that gentleman agreed to send ten students for a period of ten days.

The local council will meet shortly to hear reports of its members and will then take up the proposition of endeavoring to assist the farmers in supplying help from the schools and furnishing tractors.

FEDERAL AGENTS IN CHICAGO PROBE POTATO PRICES

Chicago, April 26.—Special agents of the Department of Justice claim to have discovered evidence of supply manipulation and price fixing among potato dealers here and it is said the federal grand jury will start an investigation to determine whether the law against illegal combinations has been broken. Figures have been obtained by federal investigators which they claim show that 1,151 cars were held out of the consuming market during the first two weeks in March. The wholesale price of potatoes yesterday ranged in the Chicago market from $2.75 to $3.15 a bushel, with 31,000 bushels in storage. The federal agents point out that a year ago there were in storage only 19,000 bushels and the price was 80 to 85 cents a bushel.

STEAMER EASTLAND TO BE FLAGSHIP OF LAKES FLOTILLA

Great Lakes, Ill., April 26.—A fleet of training ships shortly will be sailing the Great Lakes. It was announced at the United States Naval Training Station here today. Captain W. A. Moffett, commandant, has planned the mobilization of a number of vessels mounting guns ranging from one pounders to six inch pieces. The fleet will serve to train recruits passing through the training station here, which has been greatly expanded since the outbreak of the war. The steamer Eastland, which turned over in the Chicago River in 1915 with a loss of 812 lives and which is now being rebuilt as a gunboat, will be the flagship. Other vessels in the fleet will be two of the former Spanish gunboats which were captured by Dewey at Manila Bay.

THE CHAFING DISH

Why Not Polish It Up For Spring Breakfasts Now?

AS CHEAP AS GAS BILLS.

There Are Any Number of Menus That Small Families Enjoy Cooked Right on the Table—Besides, It's More Fun Than a Range.

Why in many homes is the chafing dish relegated to the sideboard as an almost useless ornament, dragged forth only for "company?"

If the chafing dish proves itself a useful and practical means of preparing a meal for guests, why is it not equally good to cook family meals, especially the lighter supper, tea and luncheon? Many a time when the hostess herself has to prepare meals she would save herself labor by using the chafing dish instead of cooking in the kitchen and trotting back and forth with the various foods. Perhaps, too, father would not complain so much that he "doesn't get a chance to talk to mother," because she has to spend so much time preparing a meal, if mother used the chafing dish and talked while she cooked.

The chafing dish is a habit which more women should acquire. Once accustomed to the idea of cooking on the table it becomes just as natural and easy as cooking in a special place like the kitchen. The points in favor of the chafing dish are that it obviates the necessity of the hostess rising, that the food can be served piping hot and that with its blazer and pan it is one of the most sanitary food vessels to use and clean.

Many articles used in family suppers, such as creamed chicken, oyster stew, broiled or pan-fried chops, kidneys and many more of the dishes having a creamed sauce, can be prepared fully as well in the chafing dish as over any other kind of fuel. Why not use the chafing dish blazer instead of the ugly frying pan to cook the hamburger steak balls for tonight's supper? If the salad and dessert are already prepared the balls can be made ready, cooked in the dish at the table and served directly to each plate without even soiling the platter.

A breakfast of creamed codfish can be managed most effectively in the blazer, as can bacon, sausages and other morning dainties. Oysters can be sautéed, fried with bacon or made into a stew before our very eyes. The chafing dish burner does not smoke and make an odor, as does the kitchen range, and if used with a percolator or toaster there is no reason why an entire meal cannot be made and served vis-a-vis.

The "expense," some say. But we now have denatured alcohol at a low price, which is practically the same as gas at $1 a thousand. A small ten-cent can of alcohol burns a long time—enough certainly for three breakfasts. The chafing dish itself is easier to wash than pots and pans, and it permits a most graceful accomplishment to be added to the hostess' repertoire—that of table cookery.

Polish up the chafing dish, install it on the side table instead of behind closed doors and use it every day in the week. Why allow an expensive piece of equipment to be used once a month? If you have current have connections and plug which will permit your chafing dish to be operated electrically. It will be more fun and costlier than getting breakfast all by yourself in the kitchen.

Cook fresh, tender asparagus in salted water, barely covering with water. When done make a plain white sauce and pour over it. Sauce made of fresh cream, a little flour, salt and pepper. ## BEAUTIES OF STAGE AND SCREEN WED U. S. FIGHTING MEN

The stage and screen, whose children have long been characterized as gay—aye, frivolous—are "doing their bit."

Within the last few months they have given four of their regular first line beauties in marriage to Uncle Sam's fighting men.

The latest war bride recruits are Miss Ina Claire, a Broadway star, and Miss Betty Schade, whose face appears internationally in the flickering films.

Miss Claire's engagement to Lieut.

Lawrence Townsend, Jr., of the U. S. S. Missouri came to light last week, and it is expected that the marriage will be performed shortly. And Betty Schade has gone a step further. With her marriage to Ernest Shields, sergeant in the Pacific coast artillery service, a few days ago she renounced Germany, her native land.

The other two beauties from the theatrical world to take "war husbands" are Miss Julia Sanderson, who is married to Lieut. Bradford Barnette, U. S. N., and Miss Erminie Clark, who married Lieut. John Borland the day of his graduation from Annapolis Naval academy.

How to Grow Irish Potatoes In Lots Or City Yards to Get Best Results

Department of Agriculture Gives Method of Reducing Cost of Seed When Prices Are Soaring to Present Level.

Potatoes In Lots Get Best Results

Also Tells How Eggs May Be Kept From Spring Until Christmas Without Cold Storage Plant.

MANY persons, prompted by the high price of Irish potatoes, have written to the United States department of agriculture asking how to grow them successfully in their back yards or in vacant lots in their neighborhoods. Others who in the past have raised potatoes as a profitable way of utilizing idle land or as a crop which repays them, in whole or in part, for the cost and trouble of keeping down weeds and giving a more orderly appearance to their properties point out that good seed potatoes are scarce and high in price and ask whether there is not some method of reducing the cost for seed for their plots or half acres.

The cost of seeding, the garden specialists of the department point out, can be greatly reduced if instead of using a whole potato for planting the gardener will cut out from potatoes some shopped pieces of flesh, each containing an eye of the potato. In this way only one-fourth to one-fifth of the flesh of the potato will be needed to provide seed, and the remainder of the potato can be cooked for table use.

These cones range from one-fifth to one-seventh of an ounce in weight, whereas under the usual methods the sets range from three-fourths to two ounces in weight. A gardener under ordinary conditions will get best results by using fifteen to eighteen bushels, or 900 to 1,080 pounds of potatoes to the acre. This method of preparing sets, therefore, should make available for table use over 675 pounds of potatoes which under ordinary conditions would be planted per acre.

Two Bushels For 50 by 100 Foot Plot.

To plant a plot 50 by 100 feet, or approximately one-ninth of an acre, at the same rate of seeding would call for one and two-thirds to two bushels of seed planted in the ordinary way. The method of using the cones and eyes and cooking the remainder of the flesh therefore becomes a worth while economy even when a small area is to be planted.

Under this plan it is not necessary to prepare the seed all at one time. From day to day the cones for seeding can be cut from the potatoes as they are being prepared for the table. The cuttings then should be spread out on a piece of paper in a moderately cool room (about 50 degrees Fahrenheit) and allowed to remain until they have cured—that is, until the cut surface has become dry. A day or two should suffice for this, and potatoes then should be put in a shallow box or tray and placed where it is still cooler. Any storage condition that will insure them against frost on the one hand and undue sprouting on the other should prove satisfactory.

These seeds can be started indoors, provided it is possible to secure suitable soil and boxes. In such cases it may be desirable to plant the eye cuttings at once and allow them to start into growth indoors with the idea of transplanting them into the open ground when danger of frost is past and the ground is dry enough to be cultivated.

Small Sets Require More Care.

The smaller the size of the set or seed piece used the more thorough must be the preparation of the soil. The more finely the soil is pulverized and the more uniform the moisture conditions which can be preserved in the soil the better is the chance for the small seed piece to establish itself. A small set in rough, lumpy, or dried out soil has little chance to live, let alone make a crop.

Generally speaking, the smaller the size of the set the closer it should be planted in the row if maximum yields are to be secured. Such sets may be expected to give the best yields if not spaced more than ten to twelve inches apart in the row.

How to Grow Potatoes.

Successful potato growing, the garden specialists advise their correspondents, hinges largely on the following factors:

Good land, well prepared.

Abundance of available plant food and moisture.

Selection of proper varieties.

Good seed and good tillage.

Thorough protection of the plants against insect and fungus pests.

The types of soil in which the potato plant thrives best are those designated as sandy or gravelly loam soils. It may be grown with a fair degree of success on any type of soil except loose sand and a heavy, sticky clay soil, provided the land is well drained and contains the necessary plant food.

Successful potato production is dependent to a large extent on the thoroughness with which the land is prepared before planting the crop. Where a horse can be used the land should be plowed from eight to ten inches deep, provided the surface soil is of a sufficient depth to permit it. It is never advisable to turn up more than one inch of raw subsoil at any one plowing, so if previous plowings have not been over six inches the maximum depth at which it should be plowed is seven inches.

Where hand labor is employed the same rule should govern as to depth. In spading, especially on grass or waste land, turn the earth bottom side up.

Whether the land is plowed or spaded, it should be thoroughly pulverized immediately afterward. It is a bad practice to allow the freshly turned soil to bake in the sun and wind and thereby become cloddy, and at the same time lose a large percent of its moisture.

Where horse labor can be used, the land after plowing should be thoroughly disked first, then spring toothed, and finally finished with a smoothing harrow. Where land must be prepared by hand, it is good practice to pulverize the soil as much as possible when spading it up, after which it can be put in a fine condition of mellowness with a steel garden rake. The importance of thoroughly fining the soil cannot be overemphasized, for it increases the water holding capacity of the soil, renders more plant food available and reduces the number of weeds.

Varieties Adapted to Localities.

In the northeastern United States and along the south Atlantic seaboard the Irish Cobbler, Early Petoskey or Early Standard, all of which are practically identical, may be expected to produce larger crops and be more generally satisfactory for an early crop than the others mentioned. Quick Lunch and New Queen would be regarded as second choices for this section.

In the south central and southwestern states the Triumph may be expected to give results equal to or even better than the Irish Cobbler.

In the middle west the Early Ohio should do well, while the Early Harvest and Early Rose may be regarded as second choices.

Late Varieties.

In the New England states, Long Island and northern New York the Green Mountain, Gold Coin, Delaware and other late varieties of that class do best.

In northern Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota the late varieties named above do about as well as the Rural New Yorker No. 2 and are superior to it in table quality.

In western New York, southern Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa the Rural New Yorker No. 2, Sir Walter Raleigh and Carman No. 3 are the best adapted varieties and divide honors with the Green Mountain in the northern portions of these states.

Throughout Maryland, Virginia and the Carolinas, Tennessee and Georgia the variety known as McCormick is quite generally grown as a late variety. In a favorable season the Green Mountain can also be grown.

Depth to Plant.

Plant the small eye cuttings from one and one-half to three inches deep, depending upon the character of the soil—the lighter the soil the greater the depth of planting. Larger sets may be planted four inches deep.

If an early variety is planted and the work is to be done by hand the rows may be spaced as close as twenty-six inches, whereas if cultivation is to be done with a horse thirty to thirty-four inches usually is allowed.

Potato yields vary so greatly that only an approximate estimate can be given. If an early variety is grown it is not too much to expect twelve to fifteen bushels from a plot of ground 50 by 100 feet. Under favorable conditions this amount may be very considerably exceeded. In the case of a late variety larger yields may be expected.

Preserve Eggs by Water Glass.

March, April, May and June are the months when the hens of the country produce about 50 per cent of the lay of the whole year. These are the months also when the thrifty housewife who has her own hens or who can draw upon the surplus supply of a nearby neighbor puts away in water glass or lime water eggs for next autumn and winter. To insure success care must be exercised in this operation. The following directions are from the United States department of agriculture:

In the first place, the eggs must be fresh, preferably not more than two or three days old. Inferior eggs are best if they can be obtained, so after hatching exclude roosters from the flock and kill them for the table as needed.

The shells must be clean. Washing an egg with a soiled shell lessens its keeping quality. The protective gelatinous covering over the shell is removed by water, and when this is gone the egg spoils more rapidly.

The shells also must be free from the finest crack. One cracked egg will spoil a large number of sound eggs when packed in water glass. Earthenware crocks are good containers. The crocks must be clean and sound. Scald them and let them cool completely before use. A crock holding six gallons will accommodate eighteen dozen of eggs and about twenty-two pints of solution. Too large crocks are

PARISIAN SAGE

Helps to put Hair on Your Head and Keep It There—Prevents Dandruff.

Here's good news for men and women whose hair is falling, who are getting bald and whose scalps are covered with dandruff that nothing seems to keep away and whose heads itch like mad. W. A. Egan has secured the agency for Parisian Sage, a simple hair invigorator that is so certain in its tonic action and so sure of giving the limit of satisfaction, that they sell it with offer of money refunded if it does not abolish dandruff, stop itching head, and not only check excessive loss of hair, but stimulate a new growth. Parisian Sage is a delicately perfumed aniseptic liquid, which when massaged into the scalp goes right down to the hair roots and furnishes them with the nourishment that is lacking to make the hair grow and show more life and vitality. Parisian Sage not only stimulates hair growth, but beautifies it so that it is a favorite dressing of women who take pride in beautiful hair that appears much heavier than it really is. CHURCH STREET GETS CLUSTER LIGHTS AFTER LONG DELAY
The business men on Church street between Third and Fourth streets are all smiles today, because work on the erection of the electric light standards has finally been started by the city department.
Ten of these standards of five lamp each are to be erected, five on each side of the street, and when lighted up, that portion of the city will assume a metropolitan appearance. The Church street business men are to be congratulated upon their enterprise. There is nothing that adds more to the attractiveness of a city than the installation of electric standards.
Visitors and those passing through a city are impressed more by its electrical illumination than anything else. One of the greatest improvements that could be made in Newark would be the installation of electrical standards on both Second and Third streets from the railway track north to the public square. It would impress all travelers through the city with the progressiveness of its residents.

TOBOSO MOCK TRIAL.
There will be a mock trial at the Toboso High school building, Friday evening, under the auspices of the Methodist church. A young man will be tried for illegal trapping in the river. A quartet from Denison will assist.
Fleas are abundant in the Orient and afford the subject of many proverbial expressions. This insect is only twice mentioned in the Scriptures, in Samuel xiv, 14, and in the same book, xxvi, 20.

NEWARK WOMEN DO GREAT WORK FOR FRENCH WOUNDED

Newark women have been responding nobly to the call of the local branch of the Y. W. C. W. to sew on Fridays for the relief of French wounded. Friday after Friday these women have piled their needles making hospital supplies. The results of their labor have been neatly packed in strong boxes and sent to New York, there to be sent to Paris by the national committee.
The following articles have been sent: 89 hospital shirts, 208 ambulance pillows, 54 bed pads, 30 body binders, 46 comfort bags containing useful articles, 57 knee binders, 65 packages of gauze, 165 packages of gauze compresses, 133 arm slings, 22 bandages, 6 double blankets, 20 dozen pairs of socks, 278 bandages.
This is only a small part of what ought to be sent. Remember that the French helped America to win her independence and that they are now fighting America's battles. Newark women are invited to come in and help in this work. Some of the work can be done at home. Come on Friday to the front room of the third floor of the Y. M. C. A. and sew or get directions.

A SUMMER LIKE 1816 WOULD BE GREAT TRAGEDY

Michael J. Cosgrove of North Buena Vista street has in his possession a clipping from the Davenport Community News headed "A Year in Which There Was No Summer," which tells of frigid temperatures which prevailed over the country during the year of 1816.
The paper says the year 1816 was the coldest ever experienced by any person living at that time. From a diary he sent in 1810 and kept unbroken until 1840 notations were taken. January was so mild that people allowed fires to go out except for cooking. February and March were unusually mild, and April came warm but the first of May the temperature was that of winter with ice and snow and all vegetation was killed by the end of the month.
June was the coldest ever experienced and ten inches of snow fell in Vermont. July came with snow and ice and on the fourth of July ice as thick as window glass formed throughout New England. New York and some parts of Pennsylvania. To the surprise of all August proved the worst month of all and almost all the grain in this country and Europe was blasted. There was great privation and many would have perished but for the abundance of fish and wild game, according to the reprint owned by Mr. Cosgrove.

Have You Seen The Two-Piece House Dresses

that we are showing for summer? They are quite different, and are really very attractive, not only in style, but in the unusual fabrics. The skirt and blouse are separate, and the range of materials is large. The blouse in most models is loose, with a wide belt at the waist, while some styles are shirred, with a rubber around the waist. Collars, cuffs, belt and pockets in neat shapes add much to the attractiveness of these pretty dresses, which are made with low neck and short sleeves, for summer wear. Be sure to see them. Prices $1.25 and $1.50.

THIS SEASON'S ONE-PIECE HOUSE DRESSES

are a combination of style and economy. Made with care, neatly designed and economically priced, the values we offer are unusual. A big showing of plain colors—neat trimmings and checks, in all colors—in many attractive styles, showing neat trimmings of plain or striped materials on collar, cuffs and around belt. See the new styles, $1.25 and $1.50 each.

IT'S TIME FOR SUMMER WAISTS— MANY PRETTY STYLES AT 75c EACH

Most all fancy white fabrics, but a few models show touches of color in blue or rose. Sheer fabrics in stripes and small designs are made in pretty styles.

UNUSUALLY ATTRACTIVE ARE THE 98c WAISTS

All fresh and new, in the soft sheer fabrics of summer. Plain materials showing fine tucked front and the large sailor collar. Others are of barred and striped novelties, with large lace trimmed collars, and fancy frills down the front.

BROMLEY MEETINGS

Christian," he sarcastically commented, "when God gave his only begotten Son to save this world."

"God's the door to salvation," said the evangelist, "if you came to visit me would you break in the window, or climb down the chimney. No, you'd come in by the door. There is only one door to Heaven and that's the salvation of Jesus Christ."

In concluding the evangelist drew a harrowing picture of the deathbeds of sinners, which caused more than one sinner in the audience to squirm. At the close of the services a special meeting was held for a few minutes.

With the steady and even tramp of regular soldiers, with swords drawn and plumes flaunted to the breeze and banners flying, the Odd Fellows and kindred organizations, filed through the streets of Newark last night. More than 400 men were in line and marched to the tabernacle. The local Canton heads the process.

It was Odd Fellows night at the tabernacle and the men turned out in great numbers. The Rebekahs were there also, and all that were not in full uniform, wore the Odd Fellow "collar."

They entered the big tabernacle to the tune of Onward Christian Soldiers and filed around the front of the speakers stand. Director Wileand, the chorister, welcomed them at the tabernacle and explained that four members of the evangelistic party belonged to different lodges of Odd Fellows and that several of them were past grands in the organization.

Dr. Bromley, in welcoming the men to the tabernacle congratulated the order for the principles for which they stood and also on the fact that this very week the order will celebrate the 98th anniversary.

Because of the big delegation, the evangelist decided to preach a sermon on one of the principles of the order.

"love." He took the second link of the chain worn by the Odd Fellows as his theme and based his remarks on the best known verse in the bible. "For God So Loved the World That He Gave His Only Begotten Son, That Whosoever Believeth in Him Should Not Perish But Have Everlasting Life."

The sermon is not the kind that is generally used with an invitation to sinners, but rather a sermon of the constructive order, but out of courtesy to the Odd Fellows it was preached.

After the service last evening Dr. Bromley asked for all Christians to gather on the platform and he addressed them. He explained to them that this was the first time he had an opportunity to meet them as a body of Christians and he then asked them to get under the campaign with more prayers.

Tuesday night a man handed a bottle of whiskey to one of the workers at the tabernacle and hit the trail. He was present at the meeting last night. He said he worked all day yesterday on a nearby farm, and that he felt like a different man. The appetite for drink has left him and he believes that he has found the remedy that he has been seeking. The service last night was well attended, there being far more people present than on Tuesday night.

A meeting was held at the jail this morning by members of the Bromley party and the prisoners listened attentively to remarks by Miss Rose Fetterolf.

At 6:45 tonight another young men's meeting will be held at the First M. E. church. A number of the young men's bible classes will attend this meeting in a body and march to the tabernacle. "Men's bible class" night will be observed at the tabernacle.

The nursery was opened last evening and it is believed that in a few days this will become very popular.

Dr. Bromley will give his first lecture to women only Saturday afternoon at the tabernacle. The meeting is being widely advertised.

The services yesterday afternoon at the tabernacle were again largely attended and these services are becoming mighty popular. Rev. S. B. Goff, the assistant evangelist is preaching each afternoon and is followed by Miss Rose Fetterolf with a Bible study class. The Bible study classes are growing in popularity and there is now, beside the regular classes at the tabernacle, a class for the high school girls and still another for school teachers.

A street meeting will be held at 7 o'clock on Court House Square and W. W. Shannon of the Bromley party will speak.

GRANVILLE UNIT OF RED CROSS HAS GOOD BEGINNING

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, April 25.—The Granville committee of the A. F. F. W. scored a grand success at the tea given at Curtis hall (the Beta House) Wednesday afternoon. Despite numerous conflicting duties, which it was impossible to adjust, the spacious rooms were crowded with enthusiastic and interested guests. Patriotic decorations combining the French and American colors, gave significance to the function, and at a prettily decorated table set in the music room, tea was poured by Miss Helen Ray and Miss Eva Wilson. Mrs. Robert Biggs, president, Mrs. Frank Ray, vice president, and members of the executive committee of the A. F. F. W., received the callers. The program was most interesting and instructive, the speakers dwelling on some phase of Red Cross work, and of the relief for French wounded.

The speakers were Mrs. Alexander McKenize, Mrs. H. M. Taylor, and Mrs. Gilbert of Columbus. Mrs. Henry Lord of Columbus, whose beautiful voice and charming presence have frequently delighted Granville audiences, favored the company with the Marseilles, Barth's "The Call of the Wood," and Sidney Homer's "A Stormy Evening." A Granville unit of the Red Cross was organized with Mrs. Frank Ray as president; Mrs. Robert Biggs as vice president; Mrs. Theodore Johnson, secretary and C. B. Slack, cashier of the Granville Bank, treasurer. Memberships is expected to break all previous Granville records. Over $30 in silver offerings were received.

Among the Newark ladies who attended the A. F. F. W. tea at the Beta house Wednesday afternoon, were: Mrs. Fred Wright, Mrs. L. P. Franklin, Mrs. Robert Davidson, Mrs. Charles Montgomery, Mrs. W. H. Lewis, Mrs. W. C. Miller.

Mrs. C. D. Coons was leader of the program presented by the Granville Women's Music Club on Wednesday afternoon, April 24th held at her own home in Broadway. A large number of members and guests enjoyed the delightfully varied selections which included Mozart's "Overture to Don Juan"; Schumann's "The Lotus Flower"; Idmy Homer's "Sing to Me, Sing"; James H. Rogers' "The Star"; George W. Chadwick's "The Dancer"; Chopin's "Impromptu F Sharp Major"; Schubert's "Moment Musical, Opus 94, No. 3"; Arnold Krug's "Easter Bells"; and M. von Wein; erl's "Song of the Nixies." Mrs. C. B. White gave an analysis of the symphony program to be presented by the famous Russian Orchestra on Saturday afternoon, which she pronounced the finest ever given here.

Hostesses for the afternoon were: Mrs. R. S. Colwell, Mrs. R. W. Soule, Miss Eva Wright. The guests were: Mrs. C. E. Goodell, Mrs. L. A. Austin, Mrs. Katherine Spencer of Dayton, Miss Connor, Miss Lois Lockhart, Elizabeth Chambers and Ruth Williams.

The three hundred and fifty Denison students who are under military training, have been promoted to carry guns, and at the Wednesday drill each man carried either a real weapon or a make believe one in order to go through the manual of arms for the first time. These drills, directed by Coach Livingston, are no pink tea, nor dinner party functions, but the real muscle hardening process so badly needed by the average youth, as well as the instruction in military tactics and maneuvers.

Dr. Edward B. Green of Toledo, is visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Davis in West Elm street. Several of the younger professors are out drilling with the college boys three times a week.

In Cobridge-Taylor's "Hiawatha" which will be presented on Saturday evening in the Baptist church by the Engwerson chorus of over 200 voices accompanied by the full Russian Orchestra, the title role will be sung by Edgar Schofield, bass-baritone of New York City; the tenor by R. W. Soule and the soprano by Mrs. Corinne Lockman.

HEBRON GRADUATES OF NORMAL SCHOOL PRACTICE ECONOMY

Hebron, April 26.—The young women of the graduating class of the Hebron normal school have voted to make alike for their commencement exercises this year. They believe that teachers should come forward and take a stand on problems before the public. In a game like the present strictest economy should be practiced by everyone. For this reason they have purchased material not to exceed 25 cents per yard in price. The dresses will be made of white poplin over a Betty Wales pattern and the girls will wear red mildly tinted tulle about their class colors, red and white.

The normal graduating class is putting on for the senior play Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors." Preparation has been under way for weeks and a splendid production is expected. The play will be given in Hebron the evening of May 11.

MINERS GET INCREASE.

[Associated Press Telegram] New York, April 26.—Coal men estimate that the wage increase granted to 175,000 miners in the anthracite fields will raise the retail price of hard coal an average of 60 cents a ton. The agreement signed last night by representatives of the operators and the United Mine Workers of America adds approximately $20,000,000 a year to the miners' wages.

BERNHARDT STILL IMPROVING.

[Associated Press Telegram] New York, April 26.—The physicians attending Sarah Bernhardt, apparently recovering from an operation performed last week because of an infected injury, said today her improvement was so marked that they would reduce the number of consultations each day from three to two. A bulletin issued this morning said the actress "has been making a steady, slow progress."
